

You want a rewarding career. Pittsburgh needs Financial Coaches.

Let your next step be to help people take theirs.

NEIGHBORHOOD ALLIES

Financial coaching is a highly-demanded profession in the Pittsburgh region. From social service providers to credit gurus and enthusiastic number crunchers who seek to offer clients a full-picture perspective, Accredited Financial Counselors have multiple outlets to improve the wellbeing of those around them.

This year, Neighborhood Allies will invest in our second annual cohort of aspiring financial counselors who will use their skills to give back to the community.

Our partnership is engineered to clear the path to your AFC certification. Over the next year, our passionate, driven cohort will follow online coursework and work within their current organization (or one of our partners) to satisfy experience hours. Following the exam, this nationally recognized certification grants the bearer the ability to create or work at any financial coaching institution in the United States.

If you are considering this pathway to propel your career forward through top-quality service, you can learn more about job outcomes and course requirements here: <http://www.afcpe.org/certification-and-training/accredited-financial-counselor>.

Accredited Financial Counselor® (AFC®) certification is the standard — training professionals to guide clients through life-cycle financial education to help them realize their goals and achieve lasting financial well-being.

Abilities of an Accredited Financial Counselor® (AFC®):

- Educate clients in sound financial principles.
- Assist clients in the process of overcoming their financial indebtedness.
- Help clients identify and modify ineffective money management behaviors.
- Guide clients in developing successful strategies for achieving their financial goals.
- Help clients develop new perspectives on the dynamics of money in relation to family, friends and individual self-esteem.
